Schema for Identity

Believers try to live by values. (6A) The four noble truths of Buddhism and 10 commandments of Christianity.6A

Inner Circle EYFS Dark Blue KS1 Light Blue LKS2 Outside UKS2

All communities have special days and celebrations. 3A

Teachings of a leader influence the ways a believer leads their lives. 6A

Agigah ceremony is a Islamic ceremony that celebrates a child's birth.3C

Believers take their lifetimes

Hindu). 3C/4C

(Muslim, Christian,

Stories from special books teach us about identity. 1B different journeys in

> Identity is who I am and what believe.

Know things that are important to me. 1A

My own identity what makes me unique.

Different believers, believe in different things.

Jewish believers celebrate the festival of Rosh Hashanah. 4B celebrate different things. e.g: birthdays, festivals,

Harvest

People

Jews and Christians both believe in a story of how God created the world and everything in

it. 4B

Diwali is special to Hindus. 3A

> A code for living helps a person make good choices and say no to bad things. 6C

The meanings of religions and worldviews to individuals and communities – what is similar and different?